

4. So parted you

Words by Thomas Campion

John Coprario

5

So par- ted you, so par- ted
So lov- ed you, so lov- ed

you as if the world for ev- er had lost
you as sis- ter should a bro- ther, not in 10

with him her light. Now could your tears hard a com- mon strain, for prince- ly blood doth flint to ruth ex- cite, yet may you ne- ver

vul- gar fire dis- dain: But you each o- ther

15

your loves a- gain par- take in hu- man sight.
 on earth em- bark'd in a ce- les- man tial sight.
 chain.

20

O why should love such two kind hearts dis-
 A- las for love, that heav'n- ly born af-se- ver, as na- ture should fec- tion to change should

25

ne- ver knit more fair or firm to- ge- ther?
 sub- ject be, and suf- fer earth's in- fec- tion.