

Pined I am and like to die

Thomas Campion

Pin'd I am and like to die, And all for lack of that which I Do In my bed when I should rest, It breeds such trouble in my breast, That Would I had the heart, and wit, To make it stand, and con- jure it That ev- 'ry day re- fuse: If I mus- ing sit or stand, Some puts it dai- ly scarce mine eyes will close: If I sleep, it seems to be Oft play- ing in the haunts me thus with fear. Doubt- less 'tis some harm- less sprite, For it by day, as in my hand, To in- ter- rupt my muse. The same thing I seek and bed with me, But, wak'd, a- way it goes. 'Tis some spi- rit sure I well as night, Is rea- dy to ap- pear. Be it friend, or be it fly. And want that which none would de- ny. The same ny. ween, And yet it may be felt, and seen. 'Tis some seen. foe, Ere long I'll try what it will do. Be it do.