

Come let us sound with melody

Thomas Campion

Come, let us sound with me-Heav'n is his throne per- pe-O sa- cred Sprite, in- vi-Res- cue, O res- cue me from si-Cleanse my soul, O God, thy But when once thy beams do be-
| | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |
a b r a d a p a g a d a f b b a r a the praily shine terly dark-ted im-
my dark-

(#)

ses Of the kings' King, th'om- niing. His di- vine pow'r and glonal, Ev- 'ry where, yet un- lim-ness. Ban- ish hence all these e-age, Al- ter'd with sin so that ness, O then I'll shine forth as
| | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |
a d p d r e a a a b a d a p a a a potent Cre- a-thence he thun-
ited, that all things le men- tal ob-heaven- ly pure-an gel of ness
light,

5

Au- thor of num- ber that hath all the world One in all, and all still in one a- bid-Canst in one mo- ment pe- ne- trate, re- vive Guide my soul that thirsts to the live- ly foun-
Can- not ac- know- ledge me but in thy mer-And re- cord with more than an earth- ly voice
| | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | |
d f r p d b a a a d a p r e | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | | in Har- mony fram- ed.
Both Fa- ther and Son.
me, O ho- ly Spi- rit. tian Of thy di- vinecies, O Fa- ther of grace. thy In- fin- ite hon- ours.