

3. He whose desires

John Danyel

He whose de- sires are still, are still a- broad, I see,
And there- fore now come back, come back my heart to me.

hath nev- er a- ny peace at home the while.
it is but for su- per- flu- ous things we toil.

Rest a- lone, rest a- lone; with thy- self be all with- in.
Ho- nor, wealth, ho- nor, wealth, glo- ry, fame are no such things.

For what with- out thou get'st, thou dost not win.
 But that which from i- ma- gi- na- tion springs.

High- reach- ing pow'r that seems to o- ver grow

doth creep but on the earth; lies base and low.
