

3. He whose desires

John Danyel

He whose de- sires are still, are
And there- fore now come back, come

3/4

a a f e a a f e b r

still a- broad, I see,
back my heart to me.

a a r e f e a b r a b a

a

hath nev- er a- ny peace at home the while.
it is but for su- per- flu- ous things we toil.

a b a b a b a a a a

a a

10

Rest a- lone, rest a- lone; with thy- self be all with-Ho- nor, wealth, ho- nor, wealth, glo- ry, fame are no such

r e f a b a b a b a r a in. things. For But what with- out thou get'st, thou that which from i- ma- gi-

15
dost na- not tion win. High- reach- ing pow'r that seems springs.

20
to o- ver grow

doth creep but on the earth; lies base and low.