

Like as th6-course e lute delights

John Danyel

The musical score is composed of five staves of music for lute and voice. The lyrics are written below the notes, with musical notation (rhythms and note heads) placed directly beneath the corresponding words. The score is in common time, with a key signature of one flat. The lyrics are as follows:

Like as the lute de-lights, de-lights or else, or else dis-likes as is his art that plays up-on the same, so sounds my muse, so sounds my Muse; it sounds ac-cord-ing as she strikes on my heart strings, high tuned, high tuned un-to her fame.
