

20. Now the earth, the skies, the air John Danyel

Canto 2

10-course

4/2

Now the earth, the skies, the era ere e a air, the skies, the air, now the earth, skies, air, and all things fair seems new- borne thoughts t'infuse, whilst the re- turn- ing spring joys each thing, the spring that joys each thing, and blast- ed hopes re- news, when on- ly I a- lone,

10

15

20

on- ly I a- lone, when I a- lone, left to moan, find no times borne for me.

25

No flow'rs, no mea- dow springs, no flow'rs, no mea- dow springs, no birds sings,

30

but notes of mi- se- ry, of mi- se- ry, no flow'rs, no mea- dow, no mea- dow springs,

35

no bird sings, no bird sings but notes of mi- se- ry, but notes of mi- se-

all

ry, no bird sings but notes of mi- se- ry.

all