

Daphne was not so chaste

John Dowland

Daph- ne was not so chaste as she was chang- ing,
Beau- ty can want no grace by true Love view- ed;

5

Soon be- gun by love with hate es- - trang- ing,
Fan- cy by looks is still re- - new- ed;

10

He that to- day - tri- umphs with fav- ours grac- ed,
Like to a fruit- ful tree - it ev- er grow- eth,

15

Falls be- fore night with scorns de- - fac- ed. Yet
Or the fresh spring that end- less - flow- eth. But 20

is thy beau- ty feign'd, and if that Beau- ty were of [20]

ev- ry- one de- sires Still the - - false light,
one con- sent with Love, Love should - - live free,

- the false light - of thy - trai-
- should live free - and true - plea-

[25]

- t'rous fires. Yet - t'rous fires.
- sure prove. But - sure prove.