

3. O eyes, leave off your weeping Robert Hales

O eyes, leave off your weep- ing, Love Clouds threa- ten but a show- er, hope But O the pain- ful plea- sure, where But hap- py hope that fee- leth, how

O eyes. leave off your weep- ing, Love

hath the thoughts in keep- ing, that hath his hap- py hou- re, though Love at- tends the lea- sure of hope and hap a- gre- eth. of

hath the thoughts in keep- ing, that may con- tent you: Let long in last- ing. Time lives wretch- ed- ness: Where life de- prive me, Or may con- tent you: Let

1) 4 notes double value in orig.
 2) 2 notes double value in orig.

not this mis- con- ceiv- ing, where needs must be at- ded, Love hope is but il- sion, and let me be as- su- red, when 10

com- forts are re- ceiv- ing, cause-must not be of- ded with fear is but con- fu- sion of life hath death en- du- red, Love less tor- ment you, let you. too much hast- ing, time ing.

Love's hap- pi- ness, where ness.
will re- vive me, or me.

1) b in orig.

2) 2 rhythm flags 1/2 value in orig.