

68. Jubilate deo

Motet à 5

Miguel de Fuenllana

5 10 15

Gau- de a-

1) Jubilate deo omnis terra.

20 25

mus, gau-

Cantate om- nes

30 35

de- a- mus,

ij. Jubilate, jubilate et psallite

40 45 50

gau- de- a- mus,

quoniam sua- dente Paolo, ij.

55 60 65

gau- de- a- mus,

Carolus,

1) Note indistinct.

70 75 80

gaude a-

et Franciscus, principes terrae,

85 90

mus, gau- de-

ij. con- venterunt

95 100 105

a- mus, gau- de-

ij. in unum. 1) Et pax de coelo

110 115 120 125

a- mus, gau-

descendit, ij.

120 125

de- a- mus.

et pax de coelo descendit.

1) The "a" on the 4th course seems discordant, but this pattern occurs so frequently I have to assume it's intentional.

Part 2

5 10

Gau- de- a- mus,

1) O felix aetas, O felix

15 20 25

gau-

30 35

de- a- mus,

cipes, ij.

40 45 50

gau- de- a- mus,

qui christiano populo pacem tra-

55 60

gau- de- a-

didi- sti ij.

1) Split course.

65 70 75

mus, gau- de- a-

ij.

80 85

mus, gau- de- a- mus,

Vivat Paulus. Vi- vat CAROLUS. Vivat

90 95

gau- de- a- mus, gau-

Francis- cus. Vivat, vivat simul

100 105 110

de- a- mus, gau- de- a- mus,

et pacem nobis donet

115 120

gau- de a- mus.

in aeternum, in aeternum.

1) "e" in orig clashes with Eb in top voice.

Rejoice in the Lord, all ye lands,
sing all of you, rejoice and make music,
since, persuaded by Paul, Charles, and Francis,
the princes of the world have reached agreement
and peace has descended from Heaven.

O happy age, O happy Paul, O ye happy princes,
who have handed down peace to the Christian people.
Long live Paul! Long live Charles! Long live Francis!
Long may they all live,
and may they give us peace for eternity!